

Reviewer's data (1)

|                                                          |                                                                                                        |
|----------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| First name, Surname                               | Vladimir Kostin                                                                                        |
| Academic Degree                                   | Doctor of Technical Sciences                                                                           |
| Scientific specialty of the defended dissertation | 05.02.11 – Methods of control and diagnostics in mechanical engineering                                |
| Academic title                                    | Associate Professor                                                                                    |
| Full name of the organization                     | M.N. Mikheev Institute of Metal Physics of the Ural Branch of the Russian Academy of Sciences          |
| Address, telephone, e-mail                        | 18, Sofya Kovalevskaya Str., Ekaterinburg, 620108, Russia+7 (343) 378-37-89,kostin@imp.uran.ru |
| Position                                          | Chief Researcher, Head of the Laboratory of Integrated Control Methods                                 |